“Too late have I loved you, O Beauty so ancient, O Beauty so new.”

-St. Augustine of Hippo

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Church celebrated the feast of St. Augustine this past week and it is a useful observance for us since we can take some time to contemplate the broadness and the depth of God’s power, mercy, and goodness- all of which are intertwined in the existence of each and every one of us.

St. Augustine provides a good lesson and spiritual food for thought in one of his many instructions:

“Grace is the love and favor of God towards human beings. It is a favor that we have not merited, yet is made available to us. It touches the inmost heart and will of a person. It guides the lives of those called to be faithful.” (On Grace and free will, 8)

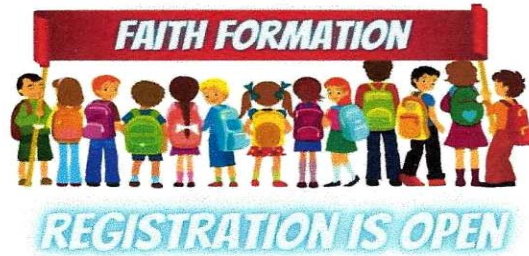

Today, let us join to the clarity of the Gospel, understanding that goodness that comes from within us is a sign of the Holy Spirit’s working in and through us; let us never allow anything within to defile us. Let us trust faithfully in the grace of God to be present at all times as a remedy, medicine, gift, and power, depending upon why it is needed.

May our communication with the Lord be frequent, peaceful, and confident.

May God bless you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Fr. Ryan", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Fr. Ryan
