Christmas 2024

Call his name JESUS.

MATTHEW 1:21

“Christ is born, so that by his birth, He might restore our nature.”

-St. Peter Chryologus

While the end of the civic year is capped by Christmas, the Church's liturgical year has just begun with Advent. The Christmas season is one of long standing traditions and expected observances but also an exciting time of new things that define each Christmas celebration in our lives; indeed, no two Christmases are alike.

As a parish, we are uniquely prepared to understand the beauty of celebrating the great feast. While adorned with unique observances from different traditions that range from different regions and of course personal family customs, we enjoy the peace of knowing that the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. The divine-human closeness of Christ translates to our life as a parish throughout the year and now is a time to admire his work through us by the Holy Spirit.

As we look back on the past year, with a mind to the future, we can be grateful to God for the blessings of a vibrant year. I offer one such blessing as a proud example- one of the great improvements for Most Holy Trinity this year has been the return of complete in-class instruction for Religious Education. It has taken some time for us to gather volunteers and assign students and now our attempts at transmitting the faith to all young ages is coming to fruition and will no doubt bear great fruit in the future.

In the season of joy, let us take time to give thanks to the almighty and omnipotent God for his blessings to us in the last year and enjoy the closeness of his Incarnation with hope and confidence as we go forward. May our good work continue and God grant his peace to people of good will.

Merry Christmas!

Fr. Ryan

Diaper Drive

in honor of the

Holy Innocents

The Constantinian Order USA Delegation is on a mission to support the Life Center of Long Island pregnancy resource centers by providing much-needed diapers.

In honor of the Holy Innocents, we are partnering with EveryLife, the only pro-life diaper company, to make this happen.
