“I am the Bread of Life.”

-John 6, 35.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is appropriate that as we move out of the month of the July, dedicated to the veneration of the Most Precious Blood, we hear the beginning of Christ's Bread of Life discourse. The essential nature of the sacrament of the Eucharist in our Christian lives is thus made very clear as we move through an important part of the year; a period dedicated to recreation, regrowth, and a general sense of peacefulness must always be one which incorporates the blessings which God bestows on us so that in our rejuvenation, we may go forward in confident peace. Now is the time to take stock of our blessings and go forward. St. Hilary of Poitiers offers a good prayer that has withstood the test of time:

"I know, O Lord God Almighty, that I owe You, as the chief duty of my life, the devotion of all my words and thoughts to Yourself. The gift of speech which You have bestowed can bring me no higher reward than the opportunity of service in preaching You and displaying You as You are, as Father and Father of God the Only-begotten, to the world in its blindness and the heretic in his rebellion. But this is the mere expression of my own desire; I must pray also for the gift of Your help and compassion, that the breath of Your Spirit may fill the sails of faith and confession which I have spread, and a favoring wind be sent to forward me on my voyage of instruction. We can trust the promise of Him Who said, "Ask, and it shall be given you, seek, and you shall find, knock, and it shall be opened unto you" (Lk 11:9); and we in our want shall pray for the things we need." (St. Hilary, De Trinitate, 35.)

Let us pray at God's altar with faith, hope, and love at all times as we draw close to God.

May God bless you
